

Kristina Daly, MD

Obstetrics and Gynecology

Dr. Daly provides all women with personalized, high-quality gynecological and obstetrical care. She can treat women for vaginal infections, dilation and curettage, postpartum depression, STDs, and help them manage the symptoms of menopause.

She is passionate about women's health and providing individual based care and is also a mother. The experience of her own pregnancy gave her a renewed appreciation for the concerns her patients raise during this life-changing time.

Dr. Daly received her medical degree from Drexel University College of Medicine. She completed a residency at AHN West Penn Hospital, Pittsburgh.

She is a member of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists.
