

Stephen R Hribar, MD

Orthopaedic Surgery

Dr. Hribar is an orthopaedic surgeon with special expertise in total joint replacement surgery for hips and knees. He is skilled and experienced in performing total hip arthroplasty, total knee arthroplasty, shoulder arthroscopy, and general fracture care. He received his medical degree from Temple University in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and completed his orthopaedic residency at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center — Hamot, in Erie, Pennsylvania.

Dr. Hribar takes the time to listen to his patients, answer questions, and solve their problems. He works with athletes of all ages, covering sports medicine for local high school and college teams. He is a member of the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons and certified by the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgeons. He also supports the work of the McGuire Foundation.
