

Anne Jennings, MD

Primary Care - Family Medicine

Dr. Jennings offers comprehensive primary care to people of all ages from infants through adults. She also provides women with general health care, contraceptives, and prenatal care.

Dr. Jennings received her medical degree from the University of Illinois College of Medicine, with a special focus on urban medicine. As part of this interest, she was the co-founder and coordinator of the Young Doctors' Club, an afterschool program for young people focusing on health and medicine. She completed her residency in family and community medicine at the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.

Dr. Jennings is a member of the Society of Teachers of Family Medicine and the American Academy of Family Physicians.
