

William Briley, LCSW

Clinical Social Work

William Briley, LCSW

William Briley is a psychotherapist and adult clinical supervisor (LCSW) whose special interests include anxiety disorders, major depression, panic disorder, PTSD, and impulse control.

He completed a Bachelor of Arts in Communications, Bachelor of Science in Psychology, as well as his Master of Social Work at the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. William received his certificate in addictions counseling from Seton Hill University and his certificate in hypnotherapy from West Virginia University.

He believes it is a deep honor and responsibility to work so closely with people in need. He also recognizes that each encounter with a new client should never be treated as routine, and he aims to give them the best possible experience.
